MASS MEDIA AND DEMOCRACY

CONTENTS

MASS MEDIA AND DEMOCRACY

NICO CARPENTIER, Introduction ................................................................. 3
NICOLAE PERPELEA, Loose Social Sentiments: “Struggles” for a Moral Recognition in Political Talk Shows ..................................................... 7
LORENA PĂVĂLAN, Events, Journalism, Epiphanies .......................... 23
HENRIETA ŞERBAN, Noise versus Dialogue. Investigating the Representation Dimension in the Context of the Romanian Media in December 1989 and January 1990 ..................................................................................... 33
ANA BAZAC, Ownership and Values. The Limits of the Democratic Media.
    An Analysis of the Main Romanian Written Media ............................ 50

IN FOCUS

HENRIETA ŞERBAN, “Reading All About It”. Front Page. Celebrating 100 Years of the British Newspaper 1906–2006 ............................................... 79

BOOK REVIEWS .................................................................................. 83

ISPRI’s ACADEMIC LIFE ................................................................. 95

THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS.............................................................. 99