THE AUTHORS

CAMELIA RUNCĂNEANU, PhD candidate in sociology and political science at the École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales in Paris (Centre de Sociologie Européenne) and at the University of Bucharest on the subject of the Romanian intellectual field before and after 1989. She is conducting seminars in political philosophy and philosophy of social sciences within the Department of Political Science at the “Dimitrie Cantemir” University in Bucharest. She is also researcher at the Institute for the Investigation of Communist Crimes and the Memory of the Romanian Exile.

NADEJDA FEYT, PhD, senior researcher within the Institute of Economics, The Russian Academy of Sciences (IE RAN), Moscow. Author of over 100 studies, the latest published in the following volumes: Russia and Central and Eastern Europe: Mutual Relations in the 21 Century (“New Trends in the Foreign Economic Policy of the Central and Eastern Europe Countries” and “Russia–Romania”, 2012), Central and Eastern Europe in the Face of contemporary economic Challenges and Threats (2012), Central and Eastern Europe: Lessons of the global Crisis (2011), Central and Eastern Europe Countries – new Member States of the European Union (2010).

LARISA N. HAREA, PhD in international relations from the National School of Political Studies and Public Administration (SNSPA), Bucharest; Head of the ONG CADMUS, Chişinău; member of the Joint Committee of Monitoring the Program Romania-Ukraine-Moldova within the UE Cooperation Programs (2007-2013). Scholarship for scientific research offered by the Romanian Ministry of Education and Research (2009-2012) and the Romanian Cultural Institute (2010).

IRINA SELIVANOVA, PhD in historical sciences, Centre of Political Research, Institute of Economics, Russian Academy of Sciences (IE RAN), Moscow. Is the author of many studies published in the Yearbooks and collective volumes edited under the auspices of IE RAN.

DARIE CRISTEA, PhD, Scientific Researcher at the Institute of Political Sciences and International Relations, Romanian Academy, Bucharest; Lecturer at the Faculty of Sociology of the University of Bucharest. Author of numerous studies and articles and books: Balcănii. Memori și geopolitică [Balkans. Memory and Geopolitics], 2005; Metodologia studiilor de securitate [The LUCIAN-ȘTEFAN DUMITRESCU has been working for the Institute of Sociology of the Romanian Academy for six years. Last year he also got employed by the Institute of Political Sciences and International Relations. He has been involved in fundamental research programmes regarding the social problems that a still backward rural area needs to grapple with. He has a PhD in Sociology from Faculty of Sociology, University of Bucharest; PhD candidate in political philosophy at the Faculty of Philosophy, University of Bucharest; associate lector at the Faculty of Sociology, University of Bucharest, where he teaches classes on history of sociology, political sociology, societal security, international relations etc. He is also involved with The Department – UNESCO Chair in Inter-cultural and Inter-religious Exchanges at the University of Bucharest, where he delivers classes on Sociology of European Culture and Globalization and European Cultural Identity. Areas of interest: history of sociology, social history, political sociology, sociology of culture, security studies.

JOHAN GALTUNG, Professor of peace studies (at universities including Columbia/ New York, Oslo, Berlin, Belgrade, Paris, Santiago de Chile, Buenos Aires, Cairo, Sichuan, Ritsumeikan/Japan, Princeton, Hawaii, Tromsoe, Bern, Alicante/Spain), mathematician, sociologist, political scientist and the founder of the discipline of peace studies. Founder of the International Peace Research Institute, Oslo (1959) and Journal of Peace Research (1964), founder and rector of the TRANSCEND Peace University (2000), the world’s first online Peace Studies University, of the TRANSCEND University Press (2008), founder and director of TRANSCEND International, a global non-profit network for Peace, Development and the Environment, founded in 1993, with over 300 members in more than 70 countries around the world.